

Join us for a series of programs in conjunction with the exhibit
WRAPPED IN COLOR: LEGACIES OF THE MEXICAN SARAPE

For information and registration: statemuseum.arizona.edu/events

SEPTEMBER 14, 2021 | ZOOM TALK

The Saltillo Sarape: History, Technique, Traditions, and Contemporary Expressions
Porfirio Gutiérrez, Zapotec textile artist and exhibit co-curator

OCTOBER 19 | ZOOM TALK

Rio Grande Weaving Evolution, Irvin and Lisa Trujillo, master weavers

OCTOBER 23 | COMMUNITY PROGRAM AT ASM

Opening Celebration with curator tours, hands-on activities, folklorico dance, weaving demonstrations, and a trunk sale of textiles by Porfirio Gutiérrez

OCTOBER 24 | IN-PERSON WORKSHOP

Natural Dyeing with Cochineal, taught by Porfirio Gutiérrez

NOVEMBER 9 | ZOOM TALK

Saltillo Connections in Navajo Weaving, Lynda Teller Pete, master Navajo weaver

DECEMBER 14 | ZOOM TALK

The Art of Textile Photography – Trials and Tribulations, Joe Coca, photographer

JANUARY 11, 2022 | ZOOM TALK

Investigating and Caring for Your Handwoven Blankets and Rugs, Dr. Ann Lane Hedlund, textile specialist, and Dr. Nancy Odegaard, conservator professor emerita, Arizona State Museum, University of Arizona

FEBRUARY 22 | ZOOM TALK

Finding Historical Mexico along the Camino Real: Material Culture and Identity from the 16th to 19th Centuries, Dr. Michael M. Brescia, curator of ethnohistory, Arizona State Museum, University of Arizona

MARCH 15 | ZOOM TALK

New Discoveries at Monte Albán: Buried Buildings and Political Transformation at the Zapotec Capital, Dr. Marc Levine, archaeologist, Sam Noble Museum, University of Oklahoma

APRIL 26 | ZOOM TALK

Oaxacan Mezcal in the Global Craft Economy, Dr. Ronda Brulotte, associate director, Latin American and Iberian Institute, University of New Mexico

MAY 10 | ZOOM TALK

The Making of Oaxacalifornia as Seen through Expressive Cultural Forms of Second Generation Oaxacan Youth, Dr. Xóchitl Chavez, assistant professor, Department of Music, University of California, Riverside

MAY 20-22, 2022 | TRAVEL TOUR

Visit Oaxaca in Southern California, with Porfirio Gutiérrez

OCTOBER 28-NOVEMBER 5, 2022 | TRAVEL TOUR

Día de los Muertos in Oaxaca, with Porfirio Gutiérrez

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

ARIZONA
STATE MUSEUM