

Native Youth Activism Think Tank

“Everyone’s an activist because it means to speak loud about things that mean something to you.”

— Selso Villegas

September 10, 2016 6:00-8:30 p.m. at Ha:san Preparatory and Leadership School, 1333 E. 10th Street, Tucson FREE, includes tickets to the afternoon NATIVE ACTIVISM: THEN AND NOW program AND dinner. This program is open to Native American students 7th grade through university Ph.D.

Using the afternoon program as background and inspiration, over dinner students will discuss what activism means to them, issues in their communities, and how they can use their passions and skills to make a difference. The dialogue will be facilitated by Della Warrior, Selso Villegas, Frank Waln, Naelyn Pike and Native Eyes educators. All participants must also attend the afternoon program at The Loft. Free tickets and transportation from The Loft to Ha:san will be provided.

REGISTRATION AND QUESTIONS FOR THINK TANK:

Email us your name, age, grade, school, and email address to falk@email.arizona.edu or call 520-626-2973.

Indigenous strategies, llc

Agnese Nelms Haury
Program in Environment and Social Justice

STU WILLIAMS
UA ALUMNUS, 2003